THE

SOUTH-CAROLINA GAZETTE,

Containing the freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtick.

Saturday, October 4th, 1746. [Numb. 651.]

CHARLES-TOWN.

The SPEECH of His Excellency JAMES GLEN, Eſq; Governor in Chief, and Captain-General, in and over His Majeſty's Province of South-Carolina, to both Houſes of Aſſembly of the ſaid Province.

Honourable Gentlemen of His Majeſty's Council, Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen of the Aſſembly.

WITH great Satisfaction and Pleaſure I congratulate you on the Succeſs with which it has pleaſed Almighty God to bleſs his Majeſty's Arms againſt the Rebels and French Troops in Scotland; the glorious and remarkable Victory obtained by the King's Forces, under the Command of His Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland, has doubtleſs extinguiſhed that unnatural Rebellion, and reſtored Tranquility to the Iſland of Britain, and I wiſh it may prove a Prelude to a general and honourable Peace.

The Power of making Peace and War is the undoubted Prerogative of the King, and it muſt give great Comfort to all his Subjects to conſider, that he is a Prince who does not delight in War, but who enters into it for the Sake of Peace, and therefore whenever the Valour and Conduct of his Majeſty ſhall (by the Divine Bleſſing) have ſet Limits to the ambitious Views of proud contending Monarchs, His Prudence and Affection for his People will procure for them that Eaſe and Quiet that they have Reaſon to hope for from the beſt of Sovereigns.

But as it is my Duty to attend to whatever may affect this Province in particular, I ſee with Sorrow and Concern the Calamities we ſuffer by the War, I have therefore ſummoned this General Aſſembly, that I may have your Advice how thoſe Calamities may be aleviated, and you may be aſſured of my hearty Concurrence in every Thing that is calculated for the publick Welfare. I recommend it to your Conſideration, whether it might not be proper to renew our earneſt Application to have the Enumeration taken off from our ſtaple Commodity, at leaſt during the preſent War, and whether a ſmall Bounty might not be procured upon Indigo exported from hence, or a heavier Duty laid upon that of Foreign Growth. If we are ſo happy as to ſucceed in ſuch Application, there is no Reaſon to doubt but that this Province would ſoon revive and flouriſh as formerly.

Since the Diſſolution of the laſt General Aſſembly, I have received Accounts from different Parts, that the Conferences which I had with the ſeveral Indian Nations in my late Journey, had entirely removed the Jealouſies and Prejudices raiſed in them by the French, and attached them more firmly to the Britiſh Intereſt; but ſtill I ſhall think it my Duty to put every General Aſſembly in Mind, that the Safety of this Province depends upon preventing French Influence amongſt theſe People, and preſerving them wholly our own: There are ſeveral Matters relating to the Indians and other publick Affairs which I ſhall communicate to you in due Time by Meſſage.

I cannot conclude without recommending to you all cloſe Attendance and a ſteady Purſuit of what may be before you, which is the certain Way to bring the publick Buſineſs to a ſpeedy and happy Concluſion.

Sept. 16, 1746. JAMES GLEN.

To his Excellency JAMES GLEN, Eſq; Governor in Chief, and Captain-General in and over his Majeſty's Province of South-Carolina.

The humble ADDRESS of his Majeſty's Council of the ſaid Province of South-Carolina, met in General Aſſembly.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects in the Council of this Province, take the Liberty to return your Excellency our hearty Thanks for your Speech made to us in General Aſſembly. And we beg Leave to expreſs our moſt ſincere and unfeigned Joy on the Aſſurances your Excellency is pleaſed to give us of the Succeſs with which it hath pleaſed Almighty God to bleſs his Majeſty's Arms againſt the Rebels and French Forces in Scotland; and that the glorious and remarkable Victory obtained by the King's Troops, under the Command of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland, has extinguiſhed that unnatural Rebellion, and reſtored Peace and Tranquility to Great-Britain; on which deſirable Event, your Excellency will be pleas'd to be aſſured, this Houſe will ever entertain the higheſt Senſe of their Obligations to the Divine Being,

Being, and the moſt dutiful and loyal Sentiments to His moſt ſacred Majeſty, under whoſe happy Influence, and the aſpicious Conduct of his Royal Highneſs the Duke, this glorious Succeſs was obtained; and we very ſincerely wiſh with your Excellency that it may prove a happy Prelude to a general, honourable, and laſting Peace: And your Excellency will be perſuaded, that this we the more ardently deſire, as our Diſtance from His moſt ſacred Majeſty (notwithſtanding the many Inſtances of his Majeſty's Royal Care of Us, which with the utmoſt Gratitude we acknowledge) renders our Situation in this Province far leſs ſecure, in a Time of War with France and Spain, than if we were happily plac'd under the more immediate Protection of ſo glorious a Leader as his Royal Highneſs the Duke. And we wiſh it more eſpecially, as we in this Province are almoſt ſurrounded with barbarous Nations of Indians, who are too eaſily debauched by the French and Spaniards, and on whoſe Attachment to the Britiſh Intereſt, at this Time, we have too much Reaſon to fear (from Informations juſt now received) we cannot ſafely rely, and who, unleſs the moſt ſpeedy and effectual Meaſures to ſecure them in our Intereſt are not only enter'd upon, but carried immediately and fully into Execution, we apprehend will not only be loſt to, but turned altogether againſt this Province. We therefore aſſure your Excellency of our heartieſt and moſt ready Advice, Aſſiſtance, and Concurrence, in all proper Meaſures, to attain this great End, as we do in all other Matters that may be calculated for the Honour and Service of his Majeſty, or the Peace, Safety, or Welfare of this Province.

By Order of the Houſe,

Sept 18, 1746. JAMES KINLOCH.

To His Excellency JAMES GLEN, Eſq; Governor in Chief, and Captain General, in and over his Majeſty's Province of SOUTH-CAROLINA

The Humble ADDRESS of the Commons Houſe of Aſſembly.

May it pleaſe Your Excellency,

WE, His Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons Houſe of Aſſembly of this Province, now met in General Aſſembly, beg Leave to return our ſincere and hearty Thanks for your Speech this Day delivered to us, and to expreſs our Congratulations and Satisfaction at the glorious Succeſs with which Almighty God has been pleaſed to bleſs his Majeſty's Arms, under the Conduct of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland, in ſuppreſſing the unnatural Rebellion, and reſtoring Peace in Great Britain.

Amongſt the ſeveral Matters which your Excellency has been pleaſed to lay before us, there is none which deſerves our Attention more than preventing the French Influence among the ſeveral Nations of Indians that ſurround us. And we are ſo fully perſuaded, with your Excellency, that the Safety of this Province in a great Meaſure depends thereupon, that we beg Leave to aſſure you, that we ſhall at all Times be ready to give our Advice to concert, and Concurrence to ſupport any Meaſures that may be thought moſt expedient to promote that great and deſirable End. And we ſhall, in due Time, take under our Conſideration ſuch Matters as your Excellency now hath, or ſhall be pleaſed hereafter, by Meſſage, to lay before us, as well as any other Matters that may tend to procure or encreaſe the Peace, the Security or Proſperity of this Province, with that Attention and Diligence which becomes an Houſe of Repreſentatives warmed with Zeal for the Publick Welfare, and moved with a compaſſionate Senſe of the calamitous Circumſtances under which many of their Fellow Subjects are now oppreſſed, and we are willing to hope, that, in Time, this Province will again revive and flouriſh as formerly.

By Order of the Houſe,

Sept 16, 1746. WM BULL, jun. Speaker.

THE SUBSCRIBERS being determined to settle all Matters whatever which have any Relation to the Partnership which heretofore subsisted between them, desire all Persons who stand indebted to them, upon Bond, Note, or otherways, not to fail of discharging their respective Debts on or before the first Day of January ensuing. If those who do not comply therewith are sued after that Time, it is imagined that they will not be able to complain for want of Indulgence.

The following Lands, &c. are to be sold by us, viz.

Part of a Lot in Elliott street in Charlestown, on the North side, joining to Mr. Poinsett's; being 27 Feet in Front.

Part of a Lot in Bedon street, on the West side, joining to Mrs. Fidling's Corner; being 51 Feet in Front.

Part of a Lot in Meeting street, near the the Market, on the West side, joining to the late Doct. Cooper's Corner in Archdale's Square; being 50 Feet in Front.

Five Tracts of Land, being some of the first run out upon that Part of Pedee River, which was afterwards reserved for the Welch, viz.

800 Acres on the West side, between the Lands of Satur and Purcel, near Mar's Bluff

300 Acres on the same side, upon Mar's Bluff, joining the late Samuel Woodward's, Northerly.

300 Acres on the East side, almost opposite to the same. Those two together are the only convenient Place for a Ferry in those Parts: and lie upon the Road to the Northward.

1000 Acres joining the same on the North side.

1000 Acres between that and the Lands of Thomas Grooms.

N.B. Toly's Creek runs through the two last

The Plantation also in Christ Church Parish whereon we at present reside, distant about 7 Miles from Town, 3 from Hobcaw Ferry, and 4 from the Church. It extends quite across the Neck; and bounds to the South on Parris's Creek, with a Landing; and to the North bluff on Quelch's Creek, with deep Water at all Times. The Quantity of Acres is 264; having the best yellow Pine, and a great Number of Live Oaks. On the Side of Parris's Creek is a Piece of very good planting Land, which hath never been cleared, and is well stocked with Fire Wood. Upwards of 100 Acres which lie on the North side of the Road leading to Winyaw are near enclosed by a Ditch, and a good Lightwood Post and Rail Fence; about 70 Acres whereof are cleared, and have several convenient Buildings thereon; as well as several Fish Ponds supplied the Year round by Springs of excellent Water; also an Orchard with above 300 young Fruit Trees of various sorts good in their kind, most of which have born; and a Garden, in which are a still greater Number of young Orange Trees. Possession may be had of the said Plantation on the first Day of January next; at which Time

The Tools, Carts, Boats, and other Necessaries, with the Stock of Cattle, Sheep, &c will be sold also; together with several Slaves, all of which (i.e. the Men) are good Watermen, and most of them good Sawyers and Axe Men.
